SOCIETY ATTENDS LEGATION AUCTION

Rich Furnishings Sold by Argentine Minister.

WORKS OF ART BRING LITTLE

Prominent Members of Official and Resident Society Among the Bidders for Contents of Senator Portela's Residence—Countess Molke Gets Clock—Sale Continued To-day.

The large attendance at the first day's sale at public auction of the rich furnishings of the legation of the Argentine Republic, conducted by C. G. Sloan & Co., at the legation, 1809 Massachusetts avenue northwest, under orders of Senator Don Epifanio Portela, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary, gave it the appearance of a social function of the official set.

Promptly at 10 o'clock yesterday morning the sale started with an attendance of over two hundred persons, representing the more exclusive sets, members of the diplomatic corps, government officials, and army and navy officers. While at times the bidding was spirited, generally speaking, it was listless, and the prices obtained were not what one would have expected.

Among the items were many rare antiques, gilt Louis XV and XVI drawing room furniture, beautiful hangings, laceds and embroidered mahogany furniture of the Empire and other interesting periods, old Dutch and French Marquetrie, handsome dining room suite, antique chandeliers, mirrors, girandoles, antique paintings, ceramics, bronzes, curios, carpets, and many other valuable specimens bought in Paris, Madrid and other European art centers; also fine office furniture, wines, china, glass, and French kitchen battery.

First Day's Sale.

The morning and afternoon sales included the furniture of the private office, bathroom, on the fourth floor, bedroom No. 3, the clerk's office, furnishings of the third story hall and stairs, the library, including old paintings, statuary, and antique bronzes, everything in the middle chamber on the third floor, front chamber on the second floor, lavatory, second story main hall, front parlor, which included rich rugs and furniture of the Louis XVI period; Dresden statuettes, mirrors, Oriental draperies, tapestries, and embroidered, and silk portieres.

Among the purchases made, one knocked down to Mr. Macomber at $150 was a royal antique fire gilt bronze chandelier, heavily decorated with rock crystal pendants from an ancient Spanish castle and the only one of its kind known to exist, massive and elegant, wired for electricity and equipped with sockets for candles.

Another treasure went to Countess Molke at $120. This was a curious old hall clock of the grandfather type. It was originally bought in Madrid of a noted antiquarian. Mr. Pennington carried away a prize at $6 of an old painting.

"The French Invasion of Spain," by Lucas, a pupil of Goya. The canvas was handsomely framed and measured three feet six inches by two feet five inches.

While much rich and valuable furniture and many art treasures were sold yesterday, the sale to-day will be an offering of unusual richness from the reception room, music room, dining-room, entrance hall, the culinary department, and servants' hall, and a choice selection of rare old wines, cordials, and liquors from the wine cellar.

Among the successful bidders yesterday were Mrs. J. B. Forsaker, Mrs. George Howard, Admiral Logan, Capt. Guest, Mrs. Clara B. Kimbrey, Mrs. Macmillan, Max Weyl, Mrs. Harriman, Mr. Alde, Admiral Pillsbury, Mrs. Marye, members of the Spanish Embassy; Mrs. S. E. Dudley, Mrs. Robert Portner, Countess Molke, Mrs. S. A. Kimbrey, Mrs. Danglerfield, Mrs. J. B. Buckley, Mrs. Dr. Davis, Mrs. Minor, Col. Thompson, Mrs. L. P. Mitchell, Mrs. Bayard, Mrs. D. A. Smoot, Dr. Smith, of Alexandria, Va.; Mr. Macomber, and Mr. Pennington.

DAWSON ON HIS WAY HERE.

American Minister to Chile Is Called on Alopso Claim Case.

Thomas C. Dawson, American Minister to Chile, left Santiago Tuesday night for the United States. His departure was authorized by the State Department after fruitless efforts had been made to obtain a settlement of the Alopso claim case, pending for about twenty-five years.

The Chilean government has several times admitted the validity of the claim and has promised to pay it. The State Department, it is intimated, is not at all pleased with the attitude of the Chilean government toward the matter, and it is probable no minister will be appointed to succeed Mr. Dawson until the Chilean government adopts a more conciliatory attitude. In the meantime the affairs of the legation at Santiago will remain in charge of Seth Low Pierpont, charge d'affaires.

Senator Cruz, the Chilean Minister to the United States, called at the State Department yesterday and had a conference with Assistant Secretary of State Wilson.

To-night will be nuptial night. Two out-of-town demonstrators are to be married. The officers of the grocers' association have invited a number of prominent citizens to witness the ceremony.

White House day yesterday was marked by the serving of White House coffee. Considerable interest centers about the Stimpson mill and scale. The crowd that visited the show yesterday is estimated at 1,200.

WIND MARS HUNT.

Weather Bureau Predicts Better Weather for Chevy Chase Drag.

While the high wind kept some of the regulars from attending yesterday's Chevy Chase hunt, it did not interfere seriously with the running of the drag. The drag started from a large field to the north of the Bethesda post-office, where the huntsman cast the hounds up wind.

There was an unusually large number of people out, including members of the diplomatic corps. Mr. Moore made inquiries of the Weather Bureau last evening, and was told there would be but little wind to-day, so the fixture for this morning will be as arranged, at Potomac Post-office, Md., at 10 o'clock. There will be the usual breakfast at the Chevy Chase clubhouse at 8 o'clock.
